Renowned for the timeless beauty of its parks and gardens, Christchurch is now a city focused on the future. Easily accessible through its international airport, Christchurch is a connected city with a flat compact CBD and a fascinating mix of stunning heritage venues and smart new architecture. The city is a place of transformation where change and innovation are embraced, creating a strong economy, a vibrant place to visit, and an exceptional place to live. The city has new business, shopping, arts and entertainment precincts. The next striking new feature is Te Pae – Christchurch Convention Centre, opening in 2020.

ACCESS

Christchurch International Airport is located 12 km northwest of the city centre and is the major international gateway into the South Island. Business and incentive visitors can travel from the airport to the city by taxi, shuttle, rental car, or public bus.

Direct international flights arrive from Singapore, China, Australia and Fiji. Linking flights are available from a wide range of other destinations in Asia, Europe, USA, South America and the Middle East. Air New Zealand and Jetstar offer daily flights linking all major cities and many regional towns across New Zealand.

VENUES

Christchurch will soon be home to New Zealand’s premium boutique convention centre – Te Pae, opening in late 2020. The main auditorium will seat 1,400, the exhibition hall will accommodate over 200 booths, and the stunning banquet hall will seat 1,000 people. Combined with multiple smaller meeting rooms and plentiful pre-function space, this venue will see Christchurch hosting large international conferences right in the heart of the city.

The Christchurch Town Hall is a premium performing arts venue and a fantastic conference venue, with the Douglas Lilburn Auditorium seating 2,250 people, the James Hay Theatre seating 750 people, and several other smaller spaces and foyer areas for meetings, exhibition and catering.

The city’s largest indoor venue is Horncastle Arena. Located 10 minutes from the central city, the Arena boasts 4,000 sqm in the main space for a multitude of different events. The Air Force Museum of New Zealand located 15 minutes from the central city, provides a variety of spaces that are ideal for memorable conferences and uniquely themed gala dinners.

Christchurch CBD has an incredible range of venues. Create bespoke events in the stunning restored heritage architecture of the Arts Centre or the contemporary spaces in Christchurch Art Gallery with an impressive glass façade. Design a unique experience in the Transitional ‘cardboard’ Cathedral or at picturesque Hagley Oval Pavilion.
