DAY TWO

Start the day at the current host of the New Zealand Open Championships, the private golf course of jeweller and entrepreneur Sir Michael Hill. The Hills offers natural beauty alongside millions of dollars worth of sculpture dotted around the course in an outdoor art gallery. The Hills has a challenging layout, with the diversion of many elevated tees offering breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape.

After the round, linger over lunch at one of the award-winning restaurants along the picturesque main street of historic gold mining village Arrowtown.

DAY THREE

Your final round in Queenstown is on one of the most dramatic golf courses in the world. Jack's Point sits on the shores of Lake Wakatipu and is sure to test your golf clubs as much as your camera. Located beneath The Remarkables mountain range, the course winds its way through a variety of schist outcrops, native wetland and bush areas. This is truly an opportunity to enjoy 360-degree views of the South Island's amazing scenery.

After the round, a helicopter will pick you up from the Jack's Point lawn for a flight to the cliff-top par three, played at 4,500 feet of elevation and only accessible by air.
